

Conference dinner at Moderna Museet Restaurant, Wed. 21st May 2014, 20:00

How to get there?

Take the blue line of the metro towards Kungsträdgården. Get off at the Kungsträdgården station and take the exit called Kungsträdgården (direction towards the front of the train). When you exit the metro and reach the street level you will find yourself at the crossing of Arsenalgåtan and Grevgränd streets. Go straight down the Grevgränd street towards the sea, there will be a small bridge between buildings that you should go under. When you reach the end of the Grevgränd street turn slightly left and go Södra Blasieholmshamnen street. You should have the sea on your right side and the Grand Hotel on your left. The kings palace is on the other side of the bay, so if the weather is good you can take a picture. After 200-300 meters you will reach a small bridge (Skeppsholmsbron) connecting the mainland to the small Skeppsholm island. There is a golden crown in the middle of the bridge (time for another picture?). When you cross the bridge follow the main road straight until you reach a small park with many modern sculptures. Then turn left and follow the big arrows towards the Moderna Museet. The restaurant is in the Moderna Museet itself.
